Be Ye Glad

Michael Kelly Blanchard, ©1980 New Spring

This song from was instrumental in my early faith formation. Maybe it still applies today. It can be enjoyed on youtube at the following address:
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MVmODvc2TNg>.

In these days of confused situations
In this night of a restless remorse
When the heart and the soul of a nation
Lay wounded and cold as a corpse.

From the grave of the innocent Adam
Comes a song bringing joy to the sad
Oh, your cry has been heard and the ransom
Has been paid up in full, be ye glad

*Chorus: Oh, be ye glad - Oh, be ye glad
Every debt that you've ever had
Has been paid up in full by the grace of the Lord
Be ye glad, be ye glad, be ye glad*

Now from your dungeon the rumor is stirring
Though you've heard it again and again
Now - this time the cell keys are turning,
And outside are faces of friends.

Though your body lay weary from wasting
And your eyes show the sorrow they've had
But the love that your heart is now tasting
Has opened the gate, be ye glad.

Chorus

So be like lights
On the rim of the water
Giving hope in a storm sea of night
Be a refuge amidst the slaughter
Of these fugitives in their flight.

For you are timeless and part of a puzzle.
You are winsome and young as a lad.
And there is no disease or no struggle
That can pull you from God, be ye glad.

Chorus

Be Ye Glad in the New Year,
Pastor Miller

$1,000 Matthew 25 Grant Supports Free Clothing and School Supplies Project in New Albany, Pa.

A $1,000 Matthew 25 grant from American Baptist Churches USA (ABCUSA) is supporting a free clothing ministry and school supplies initiative in New Albany, Pa., a community of about 300 families in rural northeastern Pennsylvania.

“Five years ago the American Baptist Women’s Ministry of New Albany Baptist Church sensed there was a real need, and we started a free clothing ministry for the community,” explains the congregation’s Susan Miller. “New and like-new clothes are given to those in need with a ‘no questions asked’ policy,” Miller says. “We have a particular need for men’s clothing. Men seem not to have as much clothing to start with, or they hold onto what they have longer, until it is completely worn out.”

Miller explains that the community’s youngsters attend schools in the Wyalusing Area School District. “With reduced funding for our school from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, parents must now furnish many of the school supplies for their children for the school year. So for the past three years New Albany Baptist Women have tried to help children get needed school supplies.”

With the $1,000 grant, plus some locally raised money, the congregation was able to purchase and is distributing the following men’s clothes: 20 hoodies, 30 long-sleeved shirts or sweatshirts, 20 T-shirts, six coats, 20 pairs of long underwear, 10 pairs of gloves, 10 hats, 10 pairs of winter boots, and numerous pairs of pants and shorts.

For school children, the congregation has purchased 30 backpacks filled with school supplies including binders, notebook paper, pens, pencils, crayons, colored pencils, spiral bond notebooks and erasers. “We checked with local teachers to determine what supplies were needed the most,” Miller says. “We’ve distributed what we purchased, and the parents and children have all been really appreciative! Now they may be able to buy a new outfit or other necessities for the first day of school.”

“The American Baptist Women of New Albany Baptist Church want to say ‘thank you’ for the Matthew 25 grant,” Miller says. “We also want to acknowledge local businesses who have helped us out when they learned what we are doing for people in the community. We pray that we can continue these programs in the future with local funds, and, that by showing Christ’s love in this way we may lead many to Him.”

The Matthew 25 Grant initiative, sponsored by ABCUSA and the Board of General Ministries, is funded by a generous, anonymous donor whose goal is to help meet the needs of “housing, feeding, education and health with regard to the less fortunate.”

Thank You

On Thursday, December 22, we delivered 63 hats, 35 scarves and 9 pairs of gloves and mittens to the Maslow Project. Many were hand made by members and friends of the congregation. Also included were new toys for children, unopened clothing items and school supplies. Once again, we have been faithful in our commitment to Maslow. Thank you so much for your continued generous support.

The Deacon Board would like to provide a pictorial church directory in the near future. We will need pictures from individuals and families to include in the directory. Arrangements are being made to take pictures before and following the Worship Services. We will keep you informed. We would like to make the pictures as consistent with each other as possible, but if you have a digital photo you would prefer to use, please email that to Sue Becker at

So from now on we regard no one from a worldly point of view. Though we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come! All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting men's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: Be reconciled to God. God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

2 Corinthians 5: 16 - 21
