Eastwood nurtures positive development in people's lives through the love and teachings of Jesus Christ.

Grace and Peace to You

In the summer of 1977, I was raised from a watery grave of broken dreams and took the first breath of new life in Christ. From those early moments, I “knew” the tomb was empty and I wanted to “know” this resurrected Christ. In Advent of that year, the Spirit began to tutor me in the Word. Scriptures informed by the Spirit began to shape my faith experience. I resigned my practice as a clinical social worker at a local hospital and enrolled at Northern Baptist Seminary. Over this 40 year span, I have enjoyed 35 years of ministry in the American Baptist family that included four regions, three congregations and a Christian camp. My dear Leslie has been a full partner in this ministry; faithful, energetic, and generous. Mine has been an abundant life.

By the time of our arrival in 2005, Eastwood was undergoing an organizational shift from a staff-led to a member-led congregation. These changes have not been easy, but the people of Eastwood have continued faithfully trusting in God. Our ministry together has been characterized and shaped by grace, mercy, beauty, and reconciliation. Foundational to any ministry is our life in Christ rooted in the regular practice of prayer and worship.

As Leslie and I step away from active pastoral ministry, we enter a season of rest and reflection. It will also be a time of uncovering the next part of this incredible journey. We pray for your continuing prosperity and ministry as a congregation of believers. We have enjoyed life with you. We have learned together, wept together, laughed together, and worshiped God together. We have argued with one another and had our disagreements. We have learned and practiced forgiveness. We have loved one another. God is Good.

Long before I arrived, Eastwood was recognized and honored as one of the leading congregations in the American Baptist family. Better still, God knows Eastwood as a faithful witness and has placed an angel over this household of believers. Your days have always been numbered in the heart of God. Rest there in the heart of God. Wait for the Lord and be of good courage. God is with you.

Years ago, God gave me this prayer of Paul for my time at Eastwood. It is now the prayer I leave with you.

... may Christ dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge – that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God.

Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen. Ephesians 3:17 – 21 (NIV)

Thank you dear friends! I have been honored and humbled to serve as your pastor for these years. Fare-thee-well until we stand together in the light of the empty tomb.

In the loving service of Christ,

Randolph Miller, pastor

Greetings from Ed & Miriam Noyes
Lusekele, Democratic Republic of Congo

We've been busy moving (from Kinshasa) and fixing up the house and yard at Lusekele. We now have greens and a little lettuce from our new garden, as well as manioc greens from the old field we had planted in 2010 or 2011. We might have green beans by the end of the week. Ed and the carpenter team have reroofed half the house. They will work on the other side of the join of the two halves of the house today. The old roofing tiles are being carefully taken off and stored to fix all the other roofs around Lusekele that have leaks and need work, when there is money to do it. And the gardener is building a WC and outdoor shower for them, the workers, and all our visitors who would be uncomfortable with western arrangements. When the roofing is done, we have repainting to do before we put the house in full order. The leaks have caused some of the paint to peel in various spots.

Lusekele has its first interns of the year, fortunately a small and positive group. The second semester we can be overrun with as many as 70 high school interns at a time, coming without notice, for some practical experience to supplement their ag or vet studies. It is quite a challenge, especially now that we have such a small staff and small program. Last semester Lusekele paid a couple of our veteran people who Ed had been forced to lay off, to teach and supervise the interns, from the fees they brought with them. The problem is that there is apparently no other center in this province that comes close to meeting the requirements laid down by the ministry of education for such internships in ag and veterinary majors, despite our desperate condition. We're stashing interns anywhere we can because a local primary school has taken over our seminar building, with its sleeping rooms and bunk beds. There are a few problems to fix here...

We have little electricity at the house until we can put our solar panels back up and rehabilitate the whole system - we're using little handheld solar lights - Luci Lights - a lot in the meantime. We no longer have an Internet connection at the house and must do it at the center. The electrical system at the center has been jury-rigged by amateurs too much and needs reworking, and Internet for some reason is difficult there. And telephone coverage is often limited or down. Little by little we'll get it working or learn how to work around the problems.

But it is lovely being back. It is nice to be with these people again with whom we have shared so much history. It is good to be working with agriculture again, with its resonance with the premordial tasks that God gave humans in Genesis. It is good to be integrated back in this church with these Christians. And I have truly missed the daily morning prayers, with their constant challenge to think about our faith. Nothing in Kinshasa has replaced that in feeding our spiritual lives. We, as missionaries experienced in this locale can be helpful counselors to Dr. Tim and Kathy Rice as newer missionaries here, and reinforce the other Vanga missionaries. And there are certain problems with the literacy work in this area which my presence will help.

Blessings!

Miriam

Wishing each of your a blessed Christmas celebration and New 2018.

Thanks and Praise

Thank You!

I wish to thank you for the check we received from the Eastwood Baptist Church Deacon fund.

What a wonderful gift to the least of these.

Merry Christmas!

Dear Eastwood Baptist Church,

Thank you for your generous donation to the work of the Kelly Shelter.

“Hope is standing in the dark and looking out to the light.” I heard this definition of hope recently and immediately saw how it fits the work of The Kelly Shelter.

When a person is homeless there is little hope! How can you get out of the pit you’ve fallen into? When someone comes along and says there is a way out...that is light coming into one’s darkness.

The Kelly Shelter gives hope to 50 people a night for three months during the coldest part of the year. Just giving a person a warm place to sleep, use of a restroom and food to eat is great. But just getting into the Kelly Shelter isn’t the goal. Rogue Retreat’s goal is to get a chance to help each person live a better life. It is our case management that gives each person a “light bulb” experience.

This year we are adding the opportunity for each Kelly Shelter participant to have access to case management. We hope to find ways to get participants into other programs after March 31 to keep them off the streets or connect them to receiving services to enrich their lives and their futures.

Last year we had at least two women in their 80’s in the shelter. On March 31 we had to shut our doors and put these women back on the streets. I don’t want that to happen this year! With case management we can find solutions.

That why you donate to The Kelly Shelter: to make a difference. With each life given “Hope” who sees the light your gifts are paying off!

Grateful,

Chad McComas
Executive Director

Retired Ministers and Missionaries Offering 2017

Support RMMO

The roots of RMMO go back to the mid-1930s, when American Baptist congregations received a Communion Fellowship Offering on the first Sunday of each month to support retired ministers, missionaries, their widowed spouses and elderly clergy within their churches. In 1977, American Baptist Churches USA launched the Retired Ministers and Missionaries Offering (RMMO) to continue this appreciation of God's service. The offering supports those who have dedicated their lives to God's service by providing emergency assistance in times of need and a thank you check at the end of each year.

We hope congregations will be inspired by the theme this year, Generous Congregations. The verse is taken from Isaiah 32:8, 'But generous people plan to do what is generous, and they stand firm in their generosity.' Generosity is central to our faith. As Christians, we are called to serve and care for others, and RMMO aligns with the collective spirit of love that inspires us all to honor the devotion of ministers and their families for their service to the church.

Please join us in honoring God's committed servants by donating to RMMO.

Thank you for your support.

Eastwood Survey - 2017

Included with this Beacon is a survey that the leadership of Eastwood is requesting that the members of our congregation reflect upon and complete.

Please return the completed survey to the church before the Deacon Agape Meeting of January 11th. The Deacons will use your thoughts, feelings and hopes as they plan for our future.

PONDER ANEW, WHAT THE ALMIGHTY CAN DO...

Eastwood Survey, December, 2017

Please return to the church by January 11th, 2018

For a people of faith, transitional times are always opportunities to reflect upon what God has done in the past and the present, and “to ponder anew what the Almighty can do.” As leaders of Eastwood, we invite you to consider the following questions about our past, present and future:

In the past, we have seen the hand of God moving in and through Eastwood in the following ways: Describe some of the qualities you have witnessed.

Other qualities:

From your perspective, how is God presently working in (and through) the Eastwood community of faith (what are the strengths of Eastwood today)?

Other qualities

Honoring how God has moved in our lives in the past and present, how might God be shaping our lives in the future. Where is God taking us next? What are your dreams for Eastwood?

Other thoughts

In regards to our life together as a congregation, how is God calling you anew to the ministry of Eastwood? What excites you about God's immediate future for Eastwood?

Other hopes and dreams you would like to share with Eastwood's leadership.
