Shalom

Lately it seems like I have been spending a lot of time worrying. My list goes on and on including everything from peace in my heart to the state of our nation. It's at times like these that I am so very grateful we serve a God who speaks to me in a variety of ways. This time it was through reading a couple of articles about the word "shalom" and being reminded of what it means.

Shalom, the Hebrew word for peace, is derived from a root word meaning wholeness or completeness. In one of the articles I read I learned that its frame of reference throughout Jewish literature is associated with the idea of shelemut, that is, perfection and as a result, its significance is not limited to the absence of war and enmity or to the absence of quarrel and strife. In different contexts it can refer to bounteous physical conditions, to a moral value, and, ultimately, to a cosmic principle and divine attribute.

In the bible, according to Professor of Jewish philosophy, Dr. Aviezer Ravitzky's* article, the word shalom is most commonly used to refer to a state of affairs, one of well-being, tranquility, prosperity, and security, circumstances unblemished by any sort of defect. Shalom is a blessing, a manifestation of divine grace.

And then I read these words by author Lisa Sharon Harper**:

Shalom is what God declared.

Shalom is what the Kingdom of God looks like.

Shalom is when all people have enough. It's when families are healed. It's when churches, schools, and public policies protect human dignity.

Shalom is when the image of God is recognized in every single human.

Shalom is our calling as followers of Jesus's gospel. It is the vision God set forth in the Garden and the restoration God desires for every relationship.

Wow! I so want shalom for myself, for all of God's people, for our nation, for our world and while I don't have all the answers about how to go about pursuing Shalom, what I do have is the Bible in which God reveals both what shalom is and how I can best pursue it. I also have the promise that despite our anxious minds, despite division and threats of violence, God's vision remains: Wholeness for a hurting world. Peace for a fearful soul. May it be so for all of us.

Shalom,
Pastor Linda

BLACK ROCK DESERT YOUTH RETREAT

In Bible College I took an “Outdoor Leadership” class, and of all the bible classes I took at Colorado Christian University, this class happened to be the one I learned the most about God and faith in. Every day of class was about whisper lite stoves, how to build tents, purifying water, different ways to tie knots, different plants and animals to avoid, and the survival melodrama continues. However, all these lessons were leading to one final moment, pun intended. Our final. At face value, our final exam was a 9 day backpacking trip through the grand canyon. Where as time went one we were tested on all of our lessons over backpacking essentials.

However, there was a much deeper lesson being conveyed through the course of this exam. The lesson that, it is necessary for us to retreat into “the wilderness” from time to time to draw ourselves closer to God. Each night on this trip we would listen to our professor give a devotional about how many biblical figures would retreat into the wilderness to find out what God was trying to teach them at the time. Our final part of our final (again, pun intended) was to do a 48-hour solo camp where we would hike about 2 miles away from our professor, our co-instructor, and our group. And we spent the 48 hours, by ourselves, praying, worshiping and listening to God.

Matthew 4:1-11 – “Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. And after fasting forty days and forty nights, he was hungry. And the tempter came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread. But he answered, “It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.” Then the devil took him to the holy city and set him on the pinnacle of the temple and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, He will command his angels concerning you, and on their hands they will bear you up lest you strike your foot against a stone.” Jesus said to him “Again, it is written, You shall not put the Lord your God to the test. Again the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. And he said to him, “All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.” Then Jesus said to him “Be gone Satan! For it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve.” Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came and were ministering to him.”

Jesus wasn’t ready to preach to great crowds until after he had retreated into the wilderness to grow closer to God. The importance of this lesson is to show that even Jesus, God in man, perfect human being, who never sinned. Needed to get away and isolate himself from the world in the great nature that God has created for us.

All this said in order to transition into the importance of Black Rock Desert for our youth. Black Rock Desert is a region in northwest Nevada and the Northwest Great Basin. The playa (where we will be camping) extends for about 100 miles. We will be going to an event with a group of other churches in that area that we have been connected with through Don Hildebrand. Each year this group goes for great adventurous hikes, fun rides on toys, lots of games, campfires, swimming, fellowship with community and Jesus, and much more excitement. Now this year our very own Full Draw Student Ministry will be joining them! We will go on many historic hiking locations, have lots of fun exciting games to play, and learn about different times biblical figures retreated in the wilderness to grow closer to God, and how we can begin to do the same. Now, don’t start worrying thinking I am going to be sending students off into the desert to do a 48 hour solo.... They’ll be doing a 72 HOUR SOLO!

Just joking. Our students will be camping, having fellowship with each other, the other church groups involved, and experiencing God through all of it!

If you would like too make a special donation to this trip. Please include a check or cash in your offering envelope. If by check please designate it to “Youth Retreat” in the memo section.

Black Rock Desert Retreat Forms and due dates: If your student is planning to attend (which I highly suggest as it will be an incredible experience) a deposit of $25.00 is due by Saturday May 19th. Students are encouraged to turn in their deposits this Sunday, May 13th.

All forms (permission slips, waiver of liability and a photo release form) need to be filled out and turned in with the deposit. Forms can be found on the youth board in the Sanctuary atrium (Across from the coffee machine.) Deposits and forms completed on May 13th can be given to Don Hildebrand.

Capital Improvement Campaign Progress Update

We are continuing to move forward with our Capital Campaign projects. Last year, several elements of the overall plan were completed. The blue windows were replaced with energy efficient, low-e, opaque glass. New sinks and counters were installed in the downstairs classrooms.

We had hoped to be able to move the Crow's Nest sound booth to the main floor last year, but we had trouble finding contractors that weren't too busy! A bid has now been accepted and we will be starting work on this project May 14. (That is coming right up!) This will require the removal of several of the back pews to accommodate the new sound booth. There will be some disruption in the sanctuary as the construction will take at least two weeks or more.

The funding for these projects relies on donations to the Capital Improvement Campaign . The cost of the window replacement was $10,495 and to date we have received $7,220 for this project. The bid for the construction of the sound booth is $8,200 and we have received donations totaling $1,600. An additional piece of this project will be the purchase and installation of, and training for, a new digital soundboard and possibly the purchase of improved digital hearing devices. As we continue to maintain and upgrade our Church facilities, we ask you to prayerfully consider how you can support these enhancements to our Sanctuary. Thank you so much for the donations that have already been given.
